 Orientation Organizers’ Pledge

We, _______________________________ (name of society) pledge to be a responsible organizer of the orientation activities. We commit to promote and to protect the well-being of students participating in our activities. In particular, we promise that we will:

1. RESPECT the participants as well as other people when conducting our activities on-campus or off-campus;
2. NOT incur any DISREPUTE of the name of our society and the University;
3. NOT allow the use of BAD or FOUL LANGUAGE in our publicity or program materials and during the activities;
4. NOT allow any SEXUAL HARASSMENT in our activities, and REPORT any sexual harassment behavior to the University immediately;
5. NOT include drinking in our activities as it is unhealthy and not allowed for any persons under the age of 18;
6. OBSERVE the RULES AND REGULATIONS when using any facilities and equipment on-campus or off-campus;
7. Take CAUTION about SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION regarding facilities and equipment; and
8. REPORT any unsafe conditions to the relevant office/body, and NOT cause any RISKS, DAMAGES, or INJURIES.

We also take note of the following information:
1. Alumni and outsiders are not covered by the University’s insurance for students and staff. Organizers are encouraged to arrange insurance for these participants in their activities, if any.
2. Organizers may seek advice and assistance from relevant staff of the University offices when needed.

Declaration:
All Executive Committee members of our society agree to the pledge with signatures in the attached sheet.

Online Training Module by Equal Opportunities Commission
This course aims to raise your awareness about behaviours that may constitute unlawful sexual harassment under the Sex Discrimination Ordinance (SDO) in an education setting. It takes approximately one hour to complete and the program will take you through the definitions and various types of sexual harassment, and conclude with an explanation about the liabilities of school and individuals.
